Chapter 11 Section 1 The Byzantine Empire

A New Rome in a New Setting

- 527 - Justinian takes the throne
- As soon as he became emperor, he began to build up the empire. He was looking to rebuild or regain the "old Roman" land
- He referred to himself as the "Caesar" having power over the Church and the State

Life in the New Rome

- The Eastern Empire had its own character from the west. They spoke Greek
- Justinian creates one set of laws called Justinian's Code to unify his empire for everyone to follow
- The laws were based on old Roman laws and regulated all areas of life
- Some examples of areas that they regulated include: marriage, slavery, property, inheritance, women's rights, and criminal justice.

Creating the Imperial Capital

- He's rebuilding the capital city.
- He did this by building a massive church, imperial courts and schools, walls for protection, aqueducts, and a better education system
- We are beginning to see a Rebirth of the Greco/Roman culture

Constantinople's Hectic Pace

- Constantinople was a social center of trade and entertainment
- Describes Constantinople as an urban center with a
 - center for trade
 - center for entertainment (the Hippodrome which resembled the Coliseum in Rome)

The Plague of Justinian

- Disease similar to the plague began to weaken the empire

Attacks From East and West

- They were facing a lot of attacks or invasions from many different groups
- Eventually the empire falls/weakens/shrinks

A Church Divides

- Christianity divides into the East and West

http://study.com/academy/practice/quiz-worksheet/byzantine-art-architecture.html

1. What is a Byzantine icon?

- The most well-known Byzantine icon is the Hagia Sophia - a very famous Cathedral.
- Something that represents something else
- A flat panel painted with religious images through which God performed miracles.
- Something that is very famous and well recognized.

2. What was the Byzantine Empire?

- The Islamic force that invaded and conquered the Christian stronghold of Constantinople
- A major state that grew as the center of the Christian world when Rome fell
- A force in Eastern Europe that was centered in Moscow
- The major state that invaded and conquered the Roman Empire in the 5th century

3. Why did Byzantine art feature human figures that were often elongated, greenish in color, or not realistically interacting with the background?

- The Byzantines did not believe in using images.
- Their art was meant to be abstract, to represent the divinity of figures from Christianity.
- The art was meant to scare people, to fill them with a fear of the gospel.
- The Byzantine artists lost most of their skills at art after the fall of Rome.

Byzantine Empire

Origin of name - Byzantion

Byzantine Empire

Byzantine Empire was a continuation of the Roman Empire in the East. It was founded by Constantine the Great in 324 AD and lasted until the fall of Constantinople in 1453 AD. The empire was ruled by the Byzantine emperors, who were the successors of the Roman emperors. The Byzantine Empire was a major power in the Eastern Mediterranean region and played a significant role in the history of the world.

Key features of the Byzantine Empire include:

- Constantinople as the capital and a major center of trade and culture.
- The development of Byzantine art and architecture, characterized by mosaics and domes.
- The influence of the Byzantine Empire on the development of the Eastern Orthodox Church.
- The role of the Byzantine Empire in the preservation of ancient Greek and Roman literature and knowledge.

The Byzantine Empire was a complex and multifaceted civilization that played a crucial role in the history of the world. Its legacy is still felt today in many aspects of modern society, including art, architecture, and religion.
